    - (1) preside at meetings
    - (2) open meetings on time
    - (3) announce business
    - (4) recognize speakers
    - (5) state motions and put motions to a vote
    - (6) maintain order and enforce rules
    - (7) expedite business
    - (8) adjourn meetings
    - (9) sign documents
  - b. Vice-Chairman – The Vice-Chairman shall preside over council meetings in the absence of the Speaker. He or she should be willing and qualified to serve as Chairperson (e.g. 35 years of age).
  - c. Secretary – The Secretary is responsible for the minutes of the Tribal Council, and should have writing skills and be able to file, maintain, notify, sign and keep records of all proceedings of Council meetings and committee reports. The Secretary shall:
    - (1) record minutes and file
    - (2) present minutes for approval
    - (3) prepare notice for meetings
    - (4) sign documents
    - (5) maintain tribal records
  - d. Treasurer – The Treasurer is responsible for facilitating the preparation of tribal budgets, conducting a public hearing on budgets, and should be knowledgeable of budgets, including preparation and monitoring of budgets, who shall oversee Council proceedings to prepare annual Tribal budgets.
    - (1) present financial reports for review by Council members
    - (2) ensures that adequate financial controls exist to safely guard Tribal assets
    - (3) ensure that there are sound fiscal policies and procedures
    - (4) sign documents
    - (5) serve as Finance Committee Chairperson

Duties & Decorum

- e. Parliamentarian – The Parliamentarian shall be elected from the Council by a simple majority vote, and should be knowledgeable of parliamentary rules and procedure. The Parliamentarian shall:
  - (1) assist the Speaker in maintaining order in meetings to ensure standard rules for the conduct of the meeting are adhered to
  - (2) be responsible for responding to any questions or concerns regarding parliamentary procedure
2. Elections for such officers will be held at the first business meeting of the newly elected Tribal Council member (s), unless otherwise determined by a simple majority vote of the Council.
3. It shall be the responsibility of the speaker to ensure that the monthly Tribal Council Business Meeting is opened and closed by prayer, with the exception of scheduled consecutive meetings at that time there will only be one opening and one closing prayer.

SECTION 2. TRIBAL COUNCIL BUSINESS MEETINGS

1. In accordance with Article VII, Section 1-b of the Constitution of the Lumbee Tribe, the Tribal Council shall adopt rules and regulations governing the Council's procedure and decorum.
  - a. The Rules and Regulations shall be adopted by the Tribal Council following swearing in of any newly elected Tribal Council member (s)
  - b. A vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the present Council members shall be required to change or suspend the rules, except as voted in Tribal Law or this resolution.
2. There shall be regular meetings of the Tribal Council as defined in a resolution by the Tribal Council at the first annual meeting of each calendar year. The meetings for each calendar year shall be published and made available to the membership.
3. No proceedings of the Tribal Council shall take place in the absence of a quorum which shall consist of two-third (2/3) of the sitting council members, and all decisions of the Tribal Council shall require an affirmative vote of the majority of present council members, except as voted in Tribal Law or in this resolution. In determining what number constitutes two-thirds (2/3) of the sitting Council members, the number will be rounded up to the nearest whole number.
4. The Speaker shall, upon the request of one-third (1/3) or more of the Council members or the written request of the Tribal Chairperson, schedule a special session of the Tribal Council, with at least five (5) business days advance notice thereof to all members of the Tribal Council. Only in the most extreme of cases or circumstances can the Speaker with the approval of a majority vote of the officers, circumvent the five (5) day rule by calling an emergency meeting. Any request for a special session shall state the proposed agenda item and the special session shall be limited to consideration of the proposed agenda item. No business may be transacted if proper advance notice has not been provided to the members of the Tribal Council.

Duties & Decorum

5. The Speaker shall prepare an agenda for every regular meeting with items presented to him/her for discussion and/or or action, with copies provided to each council member postmarked/emailed within five (5) business days in advance of the meeting. The Tribal Chairman and any others requesting to be added to the monthly council business meeting agenda with items presented for discussion and/or or action, must provide copies to each council member postmarked/emailed within five (5) business days in advance of the meeting. Supporting documents for an agenda item shall be included in mailed/emailed packages to the Tribal Council only. To the extent possible, committees will refrain from conducting committee meetings during this seven (7) day period.
6. Any matter that needs to be added after the agenda has been sent to the Tribal Council shall be brought to the Speaker for consideration to be placed on the agenda.
7. If the Speaker decides against placing the new item on the agenda, a simple majority (51%) vote of the council members present can add an item to the agenda.
8. The agenda shall be enforced by the Speaker and shall consist of the following:
  - a. Debate of proposed ordinance(s) and other business
  - b. Items that require action by the Tribal Council
  - c. Remarks by the Tribal Chairperson and/or Tribal Administrator should be made in advance, with a written report provided to council.
  - d. Allowed time for community remarks. Community remarks shall not exceed three (3) minutes per speaker.
    - (1) Each individual shall sign and state topic of comment they shall list their name and district to the Speaker of the Tribal Council or his delegate the purpose for their desire to speak prior to the opening of the Tribal Council meeting at which they desire to be heard.
  - e. A copy of the Community comment rules will be read aloud before each Tribal Council business meeting as well as each Committee meeting read prior to the Community Comments by the Secretary or Speaker.
9. The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum. Decency of speech shall be observed and disrespect to personalities carefully avoided. Any communication device shall not interfere with the conduct of the meetings. Tribal Council Members will not wear head gear or coverings during meetings except for women who choose to wear knitted hats or hats of simple or decorative design. Cap, toboggans, sports, garden, or farm headwear are not acceptable coverings during any meetings.
10. All monthly business meetings of the Tribal Council shall open and close with a prayer.
11. All Business Meetings will be conducted in Chambers with members having access to livestream.
12. All meetings of the Tribal Council shall follow and adhere to the Constitution, Tribal Ordinances, Standing Rules of Order, latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order and or the Common Law. Common Law is defined as a body of unwritten laws based on legal precedents established by the courts.
